PISD Dedicates Christie School

Civic Leader Honored

The Plano Independent School District will formally dedicate its tenth elementary school today at 2 p.m. ceremonies at C.M. Christie Elementary School, 3801 Rainer Rd.

A portrayal of the life of the former Plano civic and church leader in songs and scenes by the Christie student body will be presented in place of the traditional dedicatory address, according to Christie Principal Sara Isaacs.

Mrs. C.M. Christie, widow of the school's namesake, and the Christie children, Alene and C.J. of Plano and Bill of McKinney, will be introduced at the ceremonies along with their families.

The Christie family will be presented a book, compiled by first and second grade students at the school, and will present the school with a portrait of the man who was born near the site of the school that bears his name. The family has also donated six large trees for planting on the school campus.

The Cavalier Band will open the dedication program under the direction of Dale Pless. Christie PTO president Carolyn Wilhite will lead the Pledge of Allegiance, and the Student Council president Jack Quisenberry will bring greetings from the student body. School and community greetings will be brought by school board president Rutledge Haggard and a representative from the Chamber of Commerce.

First Christian Church pastor Rev. Morris Beard will deliver the invocation and benediction, and Mrs. Isaacs will recognize special guests attending the dedication.

The school's namesake was educated at the Bethany School, northwest of Plano, and also attended schools in Allen and Whitewright. After his marriage to Jessie Virginia Robbins of Plano in 1916 and the birth of their daughter, Christie moved his family to West Texas where their two sons were born.

Returning to Plano in 1935, Christie bought a hardware business located where the present Western Auto Store is now. In 1940 he bought the City Garage on Avenue K and erected a new building, on the site of the present downtown shopping center, for his expanding implement business.

In addition to expanding the Plano business district through later property purchases, Christie also helped modernize farming in south Collin County by taking mules in on trade for tractors and implements, and introducing the first mechanical cotton pickers to the area.

A charter member and director of the Plano Chamber of Commerce, Christie was an elder and chairman of the building committee of the First Christian Church when the present sanctuary was built.

Commissioners to Answer Writ

Mandamus Filed to Compel Payment of Kunkle

The hearing on a writ of mandamus filed against County Judge W.G. Proctor and the four members of the Collin County Commissioners Court will be held Monday at 8:30 a.m. in the McKinney City Hall.

The writ was filed by Cleatus Phelan, attorney for Sheriff George Smith and special sheriff's investigator Gerald Kunkle, in Judge Tom Ryan's 199th District Court when a majority of the commissioners court failed to sign an order authorizing the county auditor to pay Kunkle.

The county commissioner are required by law to sign the authorization according to Phelan, but Commissioners Bailey Dickerson and Raymond Jenkins have refused to sign and Judge Proctor declined to break the deadlock.

Proctor had earlier agreed to sign the order, but apparently changed his mind without informing the sheriff or the rest of the court. He said he would explain at the hearing why he did not sign.

Kunkle's wife appeared before the court last Monday to request the commissioners to sign the order authorizing her husband's salary for January.

"I think you are doing a very silly thing by having us file this suit against you," she said. "You are using taxpayer's money which is ridiculous. If it is personal you don't have a leg to stand on."

She claimed that Proctor and the commissioners had requested her husband to investigate the ex-sheriff and that Proctor had requested an investigation of Commissioners Jenkins and Dickerson and Charles Cook, managing editor of the McKinney Courier Gazette. Proctor termed her statements "false" and said he would not be pressured into signing the order.

County Ponders Additional Space

The Collin County Commissioners Court will meet Monday at 9 a.m. to consider leasing more office space.

The court is also expected to authorize the issuance of $700,000 in right-of-way warrants. Frank Medanich of First Southwest will appear to discuss the matter.

Mrs. Helen Lawson, tax assessor-collector, will also appear to request over-time payments in her office and the deletion of tax rolls.

James Webb, county clerk, and Leroy Richardson, county school superintendent, will also appear before the court to discuss county school trustee elections.

Other matters before the court include the consideration of a grievance committee, a reply to the Brown letter on the county retirement system, consideration of a quit-claim deed of the Excellence in Education Foundation on Coit Rd. and the installation of bicycle racks on the courthouse lawn.

The board is also expected to appoint B.C. Fielder to the board of governors of Collin County Memorial Hospital and Mrs. Dena Cogburn as deputy tax assessor-collector.

Waddell and his wife, Mary Lou and their three daughters, Jennifer, Melissa and Susanna reside on Midcrest Drive and are members of the First Baptist Church in Plano.

"I would like to serve on the Plano City Council because of my desire to be a part of the leadership which makes the decisions that affect our future," he stated. "I feel my experience, knowledge and involvement in community activities, qualifies me to serve in this position."

Waddell moved to Plano in 1969 and served as manager for Texas Power and Light Co. After nine years with that organization, he entered private business. Lambert-Waddell Inc. is a local firm involved in the development of small, highly-restricted, single-family subdivisions.

He was member of the 1971 Charter Review Commission and assisted in rewriting Plano's Home Rule Charter. Waddell served on the Chamber industrial committee for three years as a member of the Plano Centennial executive committee, and was member of the Collin County Red Cross board of directors.

Waddell was a member of the Plano Hospital Authority and was chairman of one of the subcommittees of the 1970 Capital Improvement Program of Plano. He has held a number of offices in the Plano Rotary Club and served as president of that organization in 1972-1973. He is currently a member of the YMCA board of directors and serves on the United Fund board. He is Foreman of the Collin County Grand Jury and on the Chamber of Commerce building committee. He served as vice chairman of the Safety Traffic Commission since its inception, but resigned as required by the City Charter, in order to run for councilman.

It was under Waddell's management that the local Texas Power and Light Co. was cited as the "Outstanding Industry in Plano" in 1971.

He served in the United States Army and attained the rank of Captain. Upon his release from active duty in 1964, he was awarded the Army Commendation Medal.

On Right Turn

Ban to be Removed

The Plano City Council Monday night, will reconsider a ban on right turns on red at 14th and Avenue K during their regular meeting at the municipal building.

The Citizens Traffic Safety Support Commission has recommended the repeal of an ordinance establishing the ban after receiving numerous complaints from citizens. The commission also recommends that surveillance of the intersection be maintained to insure that the move is not detrimental to traffic safety.

The commission is also suggesting a change in its membership. It will be recommended that a representative from the Parent Teacher Organization Council replace a representative of the business interests.

The council will also consider four zoning cases. A public hearing on the annexation and zoning of 1978.6 acres north of Parker, east of Custer and West of Coit Road will be held. Folsom Development Company is making the request.

A public hearing on the rezoning of lots 7A, 7B and 7C in Kendricks First Addition between 14th and 15th Streets on the east side of Avenue G from general residential to light commercial will also be held.

The request of Duncan-Strawn, Inc. for the rezoning of 22.8 acres at the southeast corner of the intersection of North Star Road and FM 544 from agriculture to light industrial and retail will also be heard in a public hearing.

The council will also review the replat of 14 Jupiter Place Shopping Center at 14th and Jupiter Road. Hunt Properties claims that additional utility easements are necessary for the second phase of construction.

Also under consideration Monday night are further development of Park Blvd., Parker Square Shopping Center; a cost estimate on the construction of a pedestrian bridge across Pittman Creek; a bond sale; and appeal for a variance to the sign code by McDonald's Restaurant; and the release of tax judgments and liens for delinquent taxes.

The council will also review standard specifications and contract documents for construction of water and sewer improvements and for the construction of paving and drainage improvements.

A contract for the construction of a water main on FM 544 West is also expected to be awarded.

Applications Now For '74 Transfers

Parents who wish to transfer children from their home school district to another for the 1974-75 scholastic year should make necessary application to the receiving district by May, Leon R. Graham, Texas Education Agency assistant commissioner for administration, has announced.

The May 1 deadline for requests will enable school districts to file summary reports with the Texas Education Agency by May 15, Graham points out.

These reports will be reviewed by the Agency to make sure none of the transfer requests violate U.S. District Court Order 5281 issued by Judge William Wayne Justice in Tyler on April 2, 1971. Under this order, any transfer of students from one school district to another must not change the racial or ethnic balance in either the home or receiving district by more than one percent.

If the balance is altered by more than one percent, the transfers will be denied, Graham adds.

Industrial Parks Located on Map

The North Texas Commission's Regional Development Committee has published a large map of the eleven counties in the Southwest Metroplex which shows the locations and descriptions of 146 industrial districts and parks, three of them in Plano.

The four-color map, which gives the name of the industrial district or park, acreage, zoning and railroad accessibility, has been distributed to more than 13,000 business executives throughout the country to apprise them of plant site locations that are available in the Dallas-Fort Worth region, Richard D. Jones, executive director of the North Texas Commission, said.

The NTC's Regional Development Committee screens and classifies inquiries generated by the NTC's communications programs and then provides assistance to business organizations seeking site locations and office-warehouse space. The RDC is made up of 10 area industrial development specialists and is co-chaired by Dr. Wallace B. Nelson, Professor of Economics in the College of Business at the University of Texas at Arlington; and Robert G. Lynch, Dean of the Graduate School of Management at the University of Dallas.

Marion Refutes Letter

Approximately two months ago, a signed letter to the editor appeared in the Star-Courier which claimed that a Plano woman had tried on many occasions to get Collin County Commissioner Carl Marion to clean out some drainage ditches near her property. Along with the letter was a telephone bill which was said by the letter's author to show a total of 11 telephone calls to Commissioner Marion in attempts to get the work done. This past week, Commissioner Marion asked that the letter be corrected because the telephone number to which the calls were made is not his telephone number. The Star-Courier regrets any inconvenience this may have caused Commissioner Marion.

Fun Show At Granny's

El Grande de Coca-Cola

BY JACK HARKRIDER
Editor

Take the Marx Brothers, add a dash of Woody Allen, then stir them liberally into a series of the worst high school amateur talent shows you've ever witnessed and you'll have a faint idea of what "El Grande de Coca-Cola" is all about.

The current offering at Granny's Dinner Playhouse, "El Grande" is totally unique for the dinner-theatre circuit and probably is the funniest production you'll ever see on the local stage.

As soon as you walk into Granny's--if you're a regular--you're immediately aware that something is different. You find yourself in a fair imitation of a cheap nightclub, which--ironically--is exactly where "El Grande" takes place.

Basically, the revue (only in the broadest sense could it be termed a "play") is the result of Pepe Hernandez' attempt to become the greatest nightclub impresario in all of Trujillo, Honduras. Boasting in the local press that he is bringing an international array of stars to Trujillo, Hernandez promotes his uncle, manager of the local Coca-Cola bottling company, out of enough money to rent a rundown dive for a month.

Unfortunately, when the great day arrives, Pepe is left without any stars, but must produce something for the paying customers. So he substitutes members of his family, and thanks to frantic and numerous costume changes, the family members attempt to pass themselves off as magicians, acrobats, mind readers, Shakespearean actors, etc.

The result is something that even Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca would admit tops the best of Show of Shows.

If the sight gags, mugging, double takes and outright zany slapstick antics weren't enough, the revue is made doubly rich in hilarity with the addition of fractured

Penguins Set Winetasting, Fashion Show

Continental Airlines' stewardess alumnae, the Golden Penguins, are having a wine-tasting party on Wednesday, Feb. 27, at 11:30 a.m.

It will be held at Dallas Federal Savings and Loan in Preston Center, and donations of $1.50 will be used to help buy playground equipment for the Chester Milford Group Home. Presenting the wine-tasting program will be Don Eix of United Ventures.

The Goldge Penguins have been invited to participate in the United Airlines' Clipped Wings luncheon and fashion show at the Airport Marina Hotel Thursday, Feb. 14.

Span-English. Virtually no English is spoken throughout the entire evening--only enough to keep the audience gasping for breath from constant laughter--and it's through this fractured dialogue that Henry Velez makes his strong impression on theatre-goers.

Appearing in a formal tux, complete with white gloves, white-and-brown oxfords and red plaid socks, Valdez has the part of Pepe, the suffering, smiling impresario who as master of ceremonies frantically attempts to bring some order to his on-going disaster and succeeds only in making it worse.

But while Velez deserves the applause he receives as a performer, his real genius lies in his direction of the performance. It is a solid, tight, non-stop parade of laughter which is suddenly over in about an hour, leaving you begging for more.

The only weakness I found was a "dramatic" skit on the life of Toulouse-Lautrec which starts off with zip, but ends in the comic graveyard with the audience wondering where the promised hilarity went. It needs a rewrite.

However, that one empty spot is an infinitesimal price to pay for the galloping humor which sandwiches it, and in no way discredits Velez' directing ability.

His guiding hand is best seen in the little things which are present throughout the revue.

For example, an acrobat's tights not quite covering the top of his Jockey shorts, or a dancer's pantyhoose with runs--little things which, when added together, give and added zest to the revue while revealing Velez' eye for detail.

Also doing an excellent job is Andrew Block as Juan Hernandez, who makes an indelible stamp on the audience with his magnificent "What am I doing here?!" looks throughout the performance.

Others in the revue--all giving strong accountings of themselves--are Franklin Getchell, Christine Hollander, Alle Galvan, Huddy Hopkins (as the blind blues guitarist who keeps running into props and falling off the stage), Germaine King, and Lyn Carmony-Hayward.

In summation, "El Grande de Coca-Cola" is one of the few presentations I've seen in the local area which is worth viewing again.

DELWIN D. RENFROE

Renfroe Named Brass President

Delwin D. Renfroe has been named president of U.S. Brass Corporation, with headquarters at 901 S. Tenth St. in Plano.

Renfroe, 35, succeeds James R. Reese, who was promoted to executive vice president of Hydrometals, Inc., parent company of U.S. Brass.

As president, Renfroe will head one of the nation's largest manufacturers of plumbing supplies and single-control faucets, with about 400 employees in Plano and nearly 1,000 nationwide. Other U.S. Brass facilities are at Abilene, Tex.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Louisville, Ky.; Carlstadt, N. J.; and Mitchell, Ind.

Renfroe joined U.S. Brass in 1967 as vice president-finance, and was promoted to vice president-operations in 1971, with responsibility for all U.S. Brass manufacturing, data processing and financial affairs.

A native of Lubbock and a graduate of Texas Tech, Renfroe is a certified public accountant, and a member of the Texas Society of CPAs and the American Institute of CPAs.

Renfroe and his wife, Nancy, live in Richardson with their three children--Joe, age 11, and twins Jan and Jill, 9.

Alumnae Plans Garden Tour

A tour of a decorator's studio, art gallery and sculpture garden will form part of the program when the Stephens College Alumnae Club meets on Wednesday evening, Feb. 20.

Members of the club, their husbands and guests, will gather at 7:30 p.m. at the Eugene Frazier Studio on Lemmon Ave. for refreshments and the tour.

Afterwards, ideas for making homes more beautiful in good taste which will reflect on the cheerfulness of the entire family will be put forward by Frazier in a talk entitled "How to Add Excitement to Your Life." He also will discuss images for making offices more prosperous and successful.

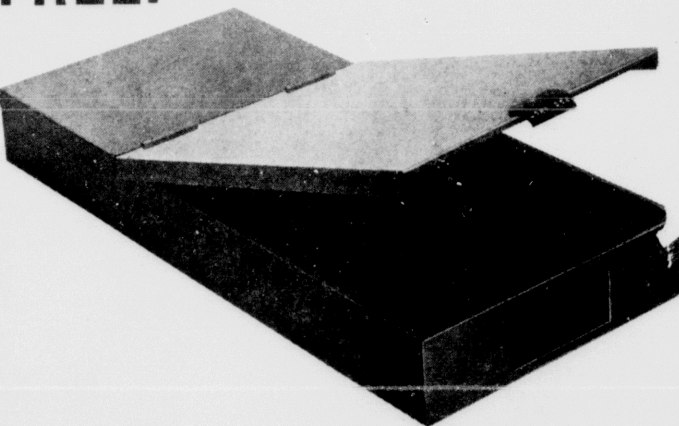

Additional information about the meeting may be obtained from Mrs. Robert R. Hargett of Plano, (423-2782), the club president, or Mrs. E.L. Markham Jr. (361-7345).

Anne Galvan as Consuela Hernandez and Franklin Getchell as her brother Miguel take off in their version of a tango as danced by the "famed" George and Consuela, part of Pepe Hernandez' great revue in "El Grande de Coca-Cola," the current attraction at Granny's Dinner Playhouse. The hilarious production is totally different from the normal dinner-theatre bill of fare.

CHURCH NOTES

By Nelda Whitehead

BRIARWOOD UNITED METHODIST CHURCH . . . Today we will hold a Pot Luck dinner following the 11 a.m. worship service. There will be no 9:30 a.m. service, but Sunday School will still be held at the regular time. Also, if anyone has card tables, please bring them for the dinner. The bread, butter and beverages will be supplied by the church.

NEEDED . . . One great animal lover. There's a little fellow in our group that needs a new home. His name is Rusty, and is just that color. If anyone would like to adopt Rusty, he'll just bark for joy! (Call Sue Klimpel, after 4:30 p.m. at 424-8216.

SCOUTS WILL meet tomorrow night . . . 7:30 p.m. UMW at 9:30 a.m. on the 12th . . . and on the 15th the annual Sweetheart banquet.

FAITH LUTHERAN . . . For the ladies--Committee chairwomen for the year are: Altar, Rena Schatte; Kitchen, Janice Sloan; Projects, Carole Hansen; Christian Growth, Dolores Bruncke; Evangelism, Mable Frank; Sunshine, Marion Nickel and Book and Gift, and Suzie Emerson.

PROGRAMS for our monthly meetings (held the last Monday of each month) include several guest speakers, topics such as our Lutheran Liturgy, Women of the Bible, and book reviews. All women of the congregation are invited to our meetings, as well as all the activities involving the women of Faith.

THE ADULT BUNCH . . . of Faith will hold a Valentine Party on Feb. 15--a bowling party. Any adult member with husband, wife or friend is invited to join us in fun and fellowship.

We will meet at the Bruncke house at 7 p.m. and "pool it" to the bowling alley. After we see how many gutter-balls we can throw, we will wind our merry way back to the Bruncke home for refreshments and some casual fun. Let Bill or Dolores Bruncke know if you plan to come, so we will know how many alleys to reserve . . . Come on!

THE WEEKDAY STAFF welcomes Mrs. Curtis Kelley (Lorraine) to our midst. She will be teaching the third and fourth grade classes each Wednesday. LENT BEGINS on the last Wednesday of February (Feb. 27) and with it, our weekly pot luck suppers at the church. Instead of coming to pick your children up at 6 p.m., bring two food items and stay with them to eat and enjoy their fellowship. Then at 7 p.m. we will hold mid-week worship services.

OUR ADVENT dinners have been well-attended, but we would like to see even more families here during Lent. Plan now to join us.

THE THIRD GRADE at Faith is planning an ice cream Social and trip to the Richard College Planetarium on Saturday, Feb. 16. We will leave the church at 1 p.m. and be back at the church at 4 p.m. Each child should bring 75 cents. We hope for a good group.

THE FOURTH GRADE at Faith will meet at the church today at 1:30 p.m. for a bowling party. We will proceed to Town North bowling center (220 Spring Valley, in Richardson) where those children living in Richardson may join us. We plan to bowl two games, at 60 cents per game, and each child not wearing rubber-soled shoes will be required to rent shoes at 20 cents. Also, since the children may want a soft drink, the suggested amount to bring is $1.75.

Richardson parents can pick their children up at the bowling alley at 4:30 p.m.; other children will be brought back to the church at 5 p.m.

THE IMPORTANCE OF COMMANDS . . . from the Faith newsletter . . . A friend of mine used to race dogs, but no more. Here is his story.

While on a trip to Alaska, he stopped by a little village church where he was entranced with the dog team that belonged to the preacher. As the good reverend had just bought a ski-mobile, and the village was poor, it turned out that the parson was willing to sell his team for a reasonable price.

My friend hooked up all his new dogs and yelled "Mush." Nothing happened so he went back and petted them all a little, and still nothing happened. Just then the preacher came rushing out.

"I forgot to tell you," he said. "They will only go if you say 'Praise the Lord' and to stop them you say 'Amen'."

Well, the new owner said "Praise the Lord" and off went the team, like a shot from a gun, faster than he could believe. Up ahead he saw a tremendous cliff falling off toward the river, and he was so petrified with fright that he forgot the command to stop the dogs. . . all he could do was pray.

So, he said a quick prayer as the dogs thundered toward the edge of the cliff, and as he reached the end of the prayer he said, "Amen" in the customary way. The dogs skidded to a stop, with the nose of the lead dog just over the edge of the cliff. It was just luck that they didn't go over!

"Whew," gasped my friend. "Praise the Lord."

WESTVIEW CHURCH OF CHRIST . . . Dr. Carey Looney will speak to the Ladies Class, Thursday, Feb. 28, at 1 p.m. A noon luncheon will also be held. Plan to attend.

A special day for working on the buildings and grounds is set for the second Saturday in March. (Mar. 9). The plans call for repair and cleaning. It will be a good day for fellowship. We need YOU!

We Are Commanded

Go And Sin No More

By G. W. Adcock, Pastor
First Pentecostal Church
Fourth in the series . . .

COULD THE APOSTLES
PAUL AND PETER
PREACH IN YOUR CHURCH?

"But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

"As we said before, so say I now again. If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Gal. 1:8, 9
THE APOSTLES' DOCTRINE CONCERNING: HOLINESS

After we are saved from sin, we are commanded to "Go and sin no more." (Jn. 8:11).

We are commanded to live soberly, righteously, and Godly, in this present world (Tit. 2:12); and warned that without holiness no man shall see the Lord. (Heb. 12:14).

We must present ourselves HOLY unto God (Rom. 12:1); cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit (II Cor. 7:1); and separate ourselves from all worldliness (James 4:4).

If the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? (I Peter 4:18).

No man can "do" by his own power, "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you." (Acts 1:8).

DIVINE HEALING
God has manifested Himself to mankind through the ages by miraculous HEALINGS, and has made special provisions under the dispensation of grace to HEAL ALL who will come to Him with faith and obedience. Divine Healing was purchased for us by the blood of Jesus Christ, being especially specified by His Stripes (Isa. 53:5; I Pet. 2:24).

Jesus went everywhere healing all that were sick (Matt. 4:23, 24). He commanded His disciples to do the same (Matt. 10:8). He said concerning those that believe the gospel, "They shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." (Mk. 16:18). Mighty healings and miracles followed the disciples wherever the gospel was preached.

There is no sickness or disease too hard for God. YOU, YOUR CHILDREN, or YOUR FRIENDS can be healed by the power of God. "Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the Church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith shall save the sick and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him."

Love Discussed At Unitarian

The Richardson Unitarian Church's Bill Nichols will discuss "The Greatest Thing in all the World" in his sermon this morning at 10:30 a.m. Visitors are welcome. Some of the pastor's view is expressed as he explains his version of love:

"It's no secret. Babies can't live without it. Adults don't want to live very long, if it is denied them. When a person gives and receives it, they are radiant and happy. If they do not, their backbones shrivel, they become cynical and grumpy, casting sharp barbs at their fellow human beings," the pastor said.

Love has too often been seen as a weak, anemic entity, alright to believe, but not to depend on or take too seriously," he continued.

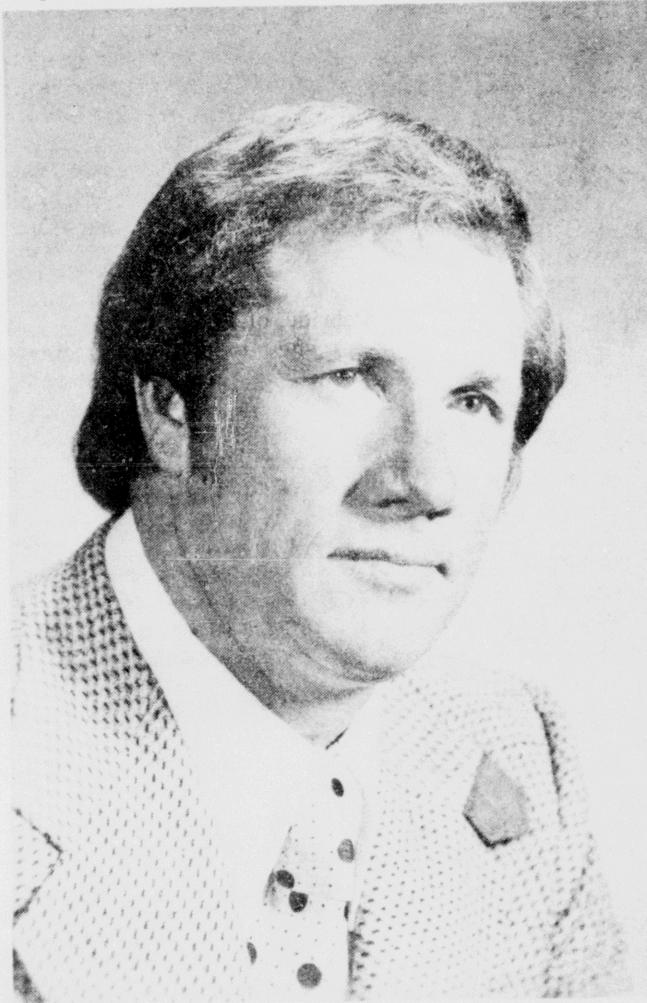

"Some feel that altruistic love has become archaic, a doctrine tossed out to the masses to keep them from killing each other. Others feel that it is a nice idea, but hopelessly idealistic and sure to sink with the irrational religious beliefs that spawned it."

"But from the modern sciences, especially behavioral psychology, some new ideas are emerging," he revealed.

"This sermon will be discussing love in light of the 'pleasure principle', and suggesting again that the religionist of old were wrong on a lot of things, but not wrong concerning love. It is time to reaffirm love as the greatest thing in all the world," he concluded.

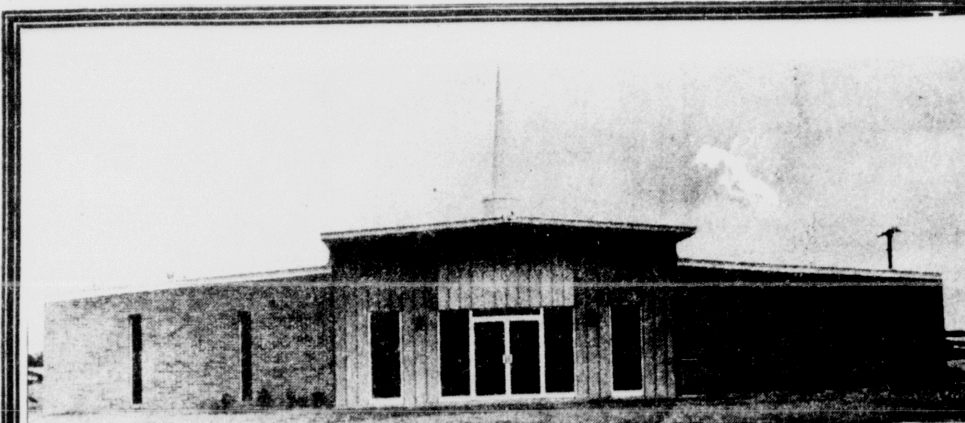

NEW FOR HOME

NEW YORK (UPI) — Over 80 per cent of all fireplace heat finds its way up the chimney. A new unit to replace the conventional iron wood basket or grate features convector tubes and a small blower to channel this heat into the room. The makers of Convect-O-Heat says it takes approximately five minutes to warm the chambers, with only a small fire required thereafter to maintain a constant heat flow. Unobtrusive, it will not diminish beauty of fireplace and requires no installation. (General Products Corp. 655 Plains Rd., Milford, Conn. 06460)

Revivalist

Evangelist Sonny Holland will be conducting a revival meeting at Grace Baptist Church, 1602 15th Pl. (one block south and one block west of the High School), beginning Monday and continuing through Sunday, Feb. 17. There will be special singing nightly by the Calvary Singers and a nursery will be provided for all services, which will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.

Steinem To Lecture At Southern Methodist University

Gloria Steinem, one of the country's best-known feminists, editor of Ms. Magazine, and noted author will speak at the Southern Methodist University Student Center on Friday, Feb. 22, at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets for the event can be obtained from the Women for Change Center, 2001 Bryan Tower, Suite 290, or at the door. Price is $2.50.

Sponsored by Women for Change and the Association of Women Students of Southern Methodist University, the event is open to the public. Ms. Steinem will discuss progress of the women's movement and its real meaning of human liberation.

Named McCall's Woman of the Year in 1972, Ms. Steinem has authored articles for many magazines and newspapers in the United States and Europe. She also has written for film, television and political campaigns, including those of Robert Kennedy, George McGovern, Shirley Chisholm, and Cesar Chavez' United Farm Workers.

A Phi Beta Kappa and magna cum laude graduate of Smith College, Ms. Steinem studied for a year in India on a Chester Bowles Asian Fellowship and then spent another year there writing for Indian Publications. In 1970 she received the Penney-Missouri Journalism Award. She was the first recipient of Simmons College's Doctor of Human Justice degree in 1973.

New Production Premiere Sunday

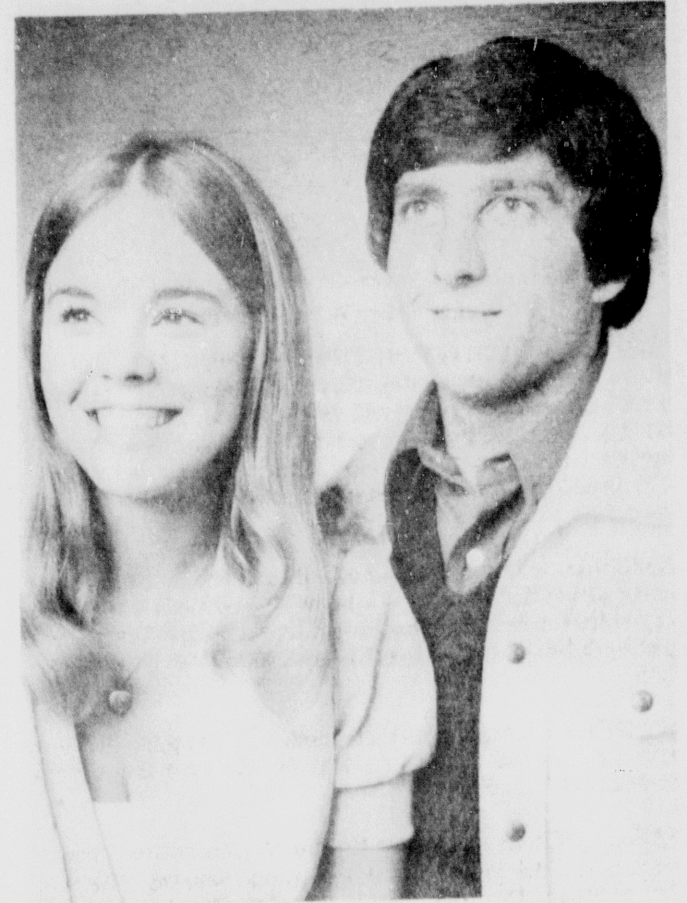

"The Center of the Universe," a new planetarium production premiering Sunday at Richland College, 12800 Abrams Rd., will show at 2, 3 and 4 p.m.

The show is open to the public and civic groups may reserve the facility for special showings. Admission is 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children under 12. (No children under six are admitted.) Showings are also scheduled for Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m.

Topic of "The Center of the Universe" is the ancient belief that man was the center of the universe with the heavens revolving around him. This idea held for thousands of years until the sixteenth century when a revolution in thought began in which man lost his favored position among the stars. The concept which replaced the old view will be presented in the planetarium production.

The planetarium theatre is a space-age environment for multi-media adventures in space and time. It features a Spitz Space Systems 512 projector and numerous special effects projectors in a forty-foot hemispherical dome. These devices are employed with voices and music in a theatrical style designed to present the wonders and mysteries of the universe in an unusual way.

Randy Newton was a top performer in the Plano Wildcats 72-56 win over the Paris Wildcats Friday night. Newton scored 16 points in the game and played well on defense.

Wildcat Netters Beat Mesquite

Plano Wildcat tennis team continued their devastation of opponents and beat Mesquite in a duel match Thursday 10 matches to two.

"We played well considering the cold weather and wind," Coach Ken Sumrow said. "Because it was so cold, everyone just played in one match instead of the usual two."

Dave Miller and John Walsh topped the netters efforts in beating Mesquite's boy's doubles team, Hill-Griffin, 8-6. The Plano duo were down 6-2 and rallied for the winning margin.

In other boy's doubles matches, Bob Arnold and Daryl Barth gave the Wildcats a win with their 8-5 win over Johnson-Fernandez. Mike Sears and Eric Pronski were bested by their Mesquite opponents 8-3. In Plano's only other loss of the meet, Russell Dilts and Jamie Schell lost 6-3 to Mesquite's Griffin-Wilson.

Girl's doubles teams from Plano swept their three matches with Ann Robinson and Jamie Palmer winning 8-1. It was the duo's first outing since joining the PHS netters at the close of the girl's basketball.

Barb Myers and Paula Weithman breezed by in their match 8-3. Cynthia Mannefeld and Becky Dilts completed the sweep by downing Hawkins-Lane 8-3.

Moore appeared in 35 games for the Expos last season, posting a record of 7-16.

Plano Plasters Paris

Wildcats Host Sherman Tuesday

Outside of a somewhat close first quarter it was really no basketball contest as far as the Paris Wildcats and Plano Wildcats match-up Friday night. Plano won the contest hands-down, 72-56.

"We started out playing a little slow," Plano Coach Larry Guinn said. "But everything picked-up and it was really no contest the three final quarters."

After that opening stanza Plano held a 19-12 advantage.

In the second quarter the 'Cats went on the prowl and scored 21 points to take a halftime lead of 40-26. A third quarter spree of 14 points put the 'Cats ahead 54-34. From there Plano coasted in for the win.

"We ran well, played well at spots," Coach Guinn said. "All eight boys did a fine job just as they usually do."

Randy Newton had his best game in several outings, scoring 16 points. Steve Mueller's four points, Jeff Dabb's three points and King Nelson's two points rounded out scoring.

Paris' top performer was Mike Taylor with 21 points.

Plano's win puts their District 13-AAAA record at 8-4. Paris' record remains at 1 win but now with 11 losses.

Plano will play Sherman Tuesday at Wildcat Gym. Sherman leads the district race with a 11-1 record. Should the Wildcats knock-off Sherman Tuesday and then Richardson Friday, they will sew-up second place in loop play.

"We've got two big ones coming up. They are going to be big games for both us and them," Coach Guinn said.

John Scott scored eight points for the Plano Wildcats in the 72-56 win Friday night. Plano's record zooms up to 8-4 and the next two matches will be the toughest, according to Coach Larry Guinn. Plano hosts Sherman, current 13-AAAA leader, Tuesday and then next Friday travels to Richardson.

Ram Frosh Downs LH

Wilson's ninth grade basketball team beat Lake Highlands Thursday 41-36 but the Rams eighth grade got knocked off 47-23.

Coach Gary Mosley said his Ram freshmen played well in the game.

"Overall the main difference in the game was that everyone 'hustled' much better throughout the game and did a good job on the boards," Coach Mosley said.

The Ram frosh had been plagued for the past two games by turnovers, which Coach Mosley said occurred less frequently Thursday.

"We handled the ball better on offense and cut down on the number of careless turnovers this game over the last two games," Coach Mosley said.

Jim Bob Puckett was the Rams top scorer with 13 points followed by Scott Ashby with 12 points.

Defense was another improvement the Rams made in the game against Lake Highlands over previous games.

"Overall the team played much better defense throughout the game," Coach Mosley said. "Our defense and rebounding was improved over our last two games and this really helped."

"Lake Highlands has a fine team and we are fortunate to have defeated them twice this year. It was a real good win and the kids wanted it very much," Coach Mosley added.

The Rams next game is Monday against Westwood there at 4 p.m.

EIGHTH GRADE
The Wilson Rams eighth grade lost to Lake Highlands 47-23.

"You can't shoot 13 percent on field goals and expect to stay in the ball game," Coach Joe Barnett said. "Lake Highlands was hot from the start and got us down early."

Plano had beaten Lake Highlands earlier in the season by 20 points but found themselves trailing by seven points after the first quarter.

"I imagine Lake Highlands hit close to 70 percent on their field goals," Coach Barnett said. "We just couldn't hit anything."

Stevie Haynes was the Rams top scorer with six points followed by Joe Blizard with five points.

The eighth grade's next game is against Westwood of Richardson Monday. Wilson will host the game following the 4 p.m. seventh grade game.

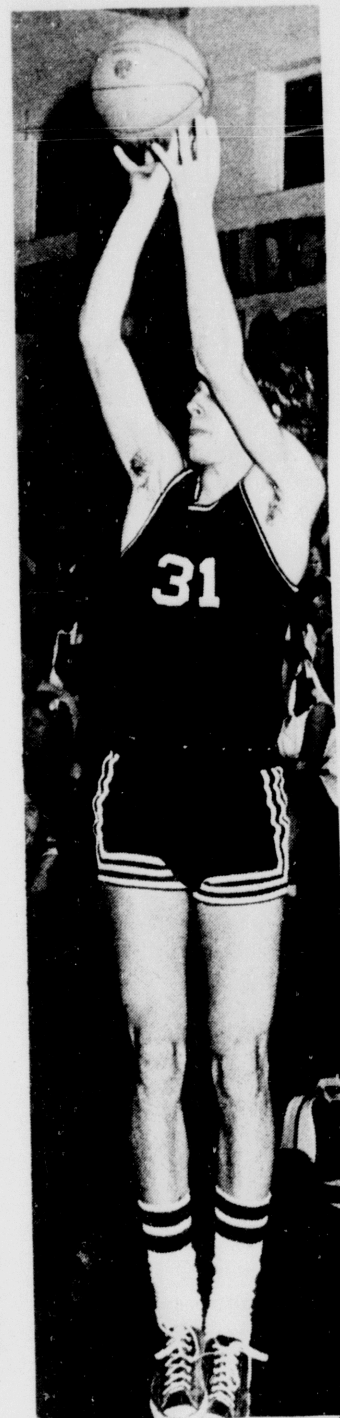

Hockey Film Slated

Hockey fans in Plano will have the chance to meet members of the Dallas Blackhaws professional hockey team Tuesday, Feb. 12.

The Canadian Club of Dallas in conjunction with the Canadian Consulate invite all hockey fans to a free film, "Series of the Century", depicting hockey scenes from the latest Russian-Canadian series.

The film will be shown at 7:30 p.m. at the Texas Bank and Trust Auditorium, located in the second lower level of One Main Place. Members of the Dallas Blackhaws will be there to watch the film.

Following the film, a reception will be held at the Canadian Consulate for hockey fans to personally meet the Blackhaws. The Consulate is located at 1412 Main Street, the 21st floor of the Adolphus Hotel.

Don Crume was second highest scoring player for the Plano Wildcats with 15 points in their 72-56 win over Paris Friday night.

Shotput Record Broke

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI) — George Woods, who once had a tryout with pro football's St. Louis Cardinals, heaved the shot put farther—indoors or outdoors—than any man in history Friday night.

The 295-pound bespectacled behemoth, a silver medal winner at the Mexico City and Munich Olympics, recorded his prodigious mark of 72-2 1/4 at the Times Indoor Games.

"That one was a little off to the left," Woods smiled. "That leads me to believe I still got a little bit more in me."

"I know this wasn't my best feeling throw. I think I felt my best the first time I broke 70 feet."

The world outdoor record, which will stand, is 71-7 set by Al Feuerbach last May at San Jose, Calif.

Feuerbach had his indoor lifetime best of 70-4 1/4 at the Times meet and said he was "happy" for his Pacific Coast Club teammate.

Bowman Ninth Edged 43-42

Seventh Grade Wins, Eighth Grade Loses

For the second time in a row the seventh grade Bowman Raiders got on the winning side of the scoreboard while their comrade eighth and ninth grade teams were beat.

Seventh grade Raiders downed Forest Meadows of Richardson Thursday 24-18. Eighth grade players were bested 33-21 and the freshmen were edged by one point 43-42.

In the freshmen game Coach Andy Coleman said poor defense and rebounding just couldn't be overcome. "We had no defense and our rebounding was very low, only 20 for the game," Coach Coleman said.

David Terry provided the bulk of Bowman scoring with 11 points followed by Tony LaPlante's 10 points. Tom Quigley, John McKenzie and Reggie Stimpson each scored six points.

According to Coach Coleman, the standouts on defense were McKenzie and Quigley.

Next game for the Raiders is against North of Richardson at Raider Gym at 4 p.m. Monday.

EIGHTH GRADE

Bowman eighth grade was plagued by poor field shooting and lost their game to Forest Meadows 33-21.

"When you hit only ten percent from the floor you can't expect to beat your opponents," Coach Basil Clark said.

"We had good hustle all day but our defense couldn't take advantage of it," Coach Basil added.

Steve Huber and Larry Webb were the top scorers for the Raiders with six points each.

"Our second and third teams did a good job especially since our opponents were so much taller," Coach Clark said.

Bowman led the contest 6-4 after the first quarter and were on top at halftime 15-13. The second half Bowman could only score six points while Forest Meadows got 22 points.

The eighth grade will play at Richardson North Monday following the seventh grade contest.

SEVENTH GRADE

A good effort from the Raiders' seventh grade team propelled Bowman to a 24-13 win over Forest Meadows Thursday.

"Our second team really put us in the game with five points," Coach Ronnie Hart said.

"The Raiders won but really did not play that great of a game," Coach Hart said. "Jim Collins, Jeff Bentley and Steve Ulmer lead the scoring."

"The defense was lead by Kevin Rush and Kirk Waggoner.

The seventh grade will play their next game Monday against Richardson North there at 4 p.m.

BONE BRUISE

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Bernie Parent of the Philadelphia Flyers, the leading goalie in the National Hockey League, will not have to undergo surgery on his catching hand, the club announced Friday.

Parent, who has allowed fewer than 1.9 goals per game and has posted 10 shutouts.

"We've got two big ones coming up. They are going to be big games for both us and them." Plano Coach Larry Guinn was referring to Plano's next two 13-AAAA ball games. Tuesday Plano hosts loop leader Sherman and then Feb. 15 travels to second place Richardson.

Beats Richardson 52-43

Sherman Takes District

Plano's slim chances for a District 13-AAAA crown withered away to no chance Friday night as the Sherman Bearcats beat Richardson 52-43 to cinch the 13-AAAA crown.

Sherman was three games in front of the Wildcats but a loss to Richardson would have given Plano at least a slim chance at the crown.

With Sherman as the loop champion, Plano can do no better than to finish second in district. Richardson with a 9-3 record is currently in second place and Plano is in third place at 8-4.

Plano and Richardson play Feb. 15.

But the game Coach Larry Guinn and Coach Roy Lamb are looking to is Feb. 12 against the Sherman Bearcats. Sherman will come to Plano for the match and a win by Plano will set-up the showdown for second place honors between the 'Cats and Richardson.

Sherman's win puts their record at 11-1 in loop play.

Even if the Bearcats lose their two remaining games, Plano Tuesday and Denison Feb. 15, they are guaranteed a tie with Richardson for first place.

In Friday's game Sherman was led by 6 foot 7 inch center John Doherty with 19 points. Bob Hoebeck led the Richardson Eagles with 19 points.

In other loop games Friday, Plano beat Paris 72-56, Pearce downed Greenville 88-80 and Denison lost to Lake Highlands.

22 UNDER CONTRACT

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Pirates Friday signed three minor league players to 1974 contracts, bringing to 22 the number of Pirates now under contract.

Signed were righthander Tom Dettore of Canonsburg, Pa., who had a 9-5 record with Charleston last year; shortstop Marion Mendez of Chihuahua, Mexico, and Omar Moreno, an outfielder from Panama.

POLLY'S POINTERS
Squeaky rocker squeaks along

By Polly Cramer

Polly's Problem
DEAR POLLY — I have a swivel rocker that squeaks terribly. I have rubbed soap on the springs but had no luck. I cannot put oil on it because the oil would drip on the carpet. Can someone help me? — BETTY.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with florists who make up planters that look so beautiful but mix the plants. Some plants used should be allowed to get dry and others require more water. In a few weeks, or less, the non-thirsty plants have died from over watering and have to be removed leaving bare places in the planter. — JANE.

DEAR POLLY — This is for C.K.E. who has oil spilled on her asphalt driveway. First, wipe the excess away with old crumpled newspapers. Cover spots with sand or corn meal and brush back and forth until the product used is saturated with oil. Remove and then use a spatula to scrape up as much as possible. If oil still remains scrub with full strength detergent and wipe up with an old rag and then rinse off with the hose. — OPAL.

DEAR POLLY — We live in an area where there are many weeks of rain and some snow each winter so having dry warm boots on my children means a lot. When buying their over-the-feet boots (the only kind sold here) I found that after wearing the boots two or three times the lining had made the children's feet perspire so badly the insides of the boots were quite damp. I have fought this for several years only to learn recently how easy it is to solve. I took the bonnet off the end of my hair dryer and inserted the hose into the foot of each damp boot. To my great joy they were dry in just a few minutes. — MRS. R.J.H.

DEAR POLLY — Rub zippers with beeswax. The excess falls off and there is no possible way to stain a garment or boot because the wax is in a firm cake. This has been a favorite no-fail method for years. — MRS. H.N.M.

DEAR POLLY — To prevent buttons from tearing off my children's clothes so quickly I double a small piece of material and sew it on back of the cloth under each button with the thread going through button, garment cloth and this addition. Another way is to sew a small button on the back and then sew through both top and bottom buttons at the same time. — EULA.

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY

For Sunday, February 10, 1974

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Most of the week's turmoil will have ended by today. Situations will be back to normal. It should be a relaxing day.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You will have plenty of time to put all the little things in order that have been out of their respective niches lately.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Forget all your wordly woes for now and concentrate on having a good time. You're entitled to a day of fun.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) This is the kind of day when you're at your best. Have some friends over to share the warmth of your hearth.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A good day to get together with those you consider your very special friends. If they can't come to you, go see them.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) More pleasant and harmonious conditions will prevail in situations that affect both you and your family.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) It would be very hard for anyone not to go along with what you want if you lay on the old Librian charm today.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Your charitable instincts will come to the fore. You'll be doing something nice for one who needs help just as everyone who knows you predicted.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Someone you'll be in contact with will have a good effect on you. This person knows how to awaken your higher ideals.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Someone is talking behind your back today. Don't be upset, she's speaking of you in glowing terms.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) This is a good "ideas" day for you. You're able to see a little farther ahead and a little clearer than you have been able to lately.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Conditions look exceptionally good in an important area where you share a vested interest with another. Give. Expect nothing in return.

February 10, 1974
This year will offer you a beautiful new hope that's more than an idle daydream. When the opportunity comes, grasp it firmly. Follow it through to its climax.

If parents of a handicapped child pay attention to the child's total environment, the child will have a better chance of being able to cope with his life as he grows up, experts in special education say.

Neighbors and neighborhood children are a definite part of a handicapped child's environment.

When a family with a handicapped child move into a new neighborhood, or when a new family move into a neighborhood with a handicapped child in it, the family of the child should not go around in an attempt to explain things, says Dr. Ernest Gotts of the University of Texas Special Education department.

"The parent may seem over-anxious if he does this, and he is apt to make a very bad impression," says Gotts. "He might make the neighbors anxious and give them a ready-made set of ideas or prejudices about the parent as well as the child. Initially, neighbors are not prepared to share feelings with new people in in the neighborhood anyway. Better to

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

North Texas Municipal Water District (Parker Estates) P.O. Drawer "C" Wylie, Texas 75098, has applied to the Texas Water Quality Board for initial waste control order for a proposed discharge (to be in operation in May, 1974) not to exceed an average flow of 42,000 gallons per day of domestic sewage effluent from the proposed subdivision sewage treatment plant (extended aeration) which is to be located in Parker Estates, a subdivision in the Community of Parker, Texas; adjacent to and just West of F.M. 2551 and about 3,000 feet North of the Intersection of F.M. 2551 and F.M. 2541, Collin County, Texas. The treated domestic sewage effluent will be discharged into an unnamed tributary, thence into Maxwell Creek, thence to Muddy Creek, thence to Lake Ray Hubbard, thence to the East Fork of the Trinity River, thence to the Trinity River. A Public Hearing on this application will be held in:

COUNCIL AND COURTS BUILDING
Main and Freeman Streets
Duncanville, Texas
10:00 a.m. March 5, 1974

to receive evidence on the conditions, if any, under which the order may be issued. Additional data will be developed at the hearing, but further technical information concerning any specific aspect of the discharge, if available, can be obtained by writing the Texas Water Quality Board, P.O. Box 13246, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

It will be extremely helpful to the Board and its staff if persons desiring to comment on the granting of this application will file written statements with the Board office and with the applicant at least five (5) days prior to the hearing date noted above giving the information required by Board Rule 305.2 (c). It is also extremely helpful if the information presented is based upon facts and data related directly to the effects of the proposed discharge on the uses of the water in the state. These requests are in no way intended to limit participation in the public hearing called by this notice. Anyone who wishes to appear and make a presentation at the public hearing will be heard.

The Hearing Commission will prepare a written report prior to submission of the application to the Board for decision. Information on procedures for making exceptions to the findings and recommendations in the Commission's report will be furnished on request. The Hearing Commission may continue the hearing on this application from time to time and from place to place as may be necessary to develop data and information material to this application.

Issued this 8th day of February, 1974.

wait till the neighbors comment, and then the parents can try to give out information."

"When parents do give information," Gotts says, "THEY SHOULD BE FRANK AND OPEN ABOUT IT. And the point should be made that the problem is not shameful." Neighbor children need a different kind of attention.

Gotts says that the time to explain things to the neighborhood children is when they come to play with the child.

"Carefully explain to them that the child has a particular kind of problem," he says "tell them he can't do one thing but he can do other things. Explain it all in their own language as much as possible. If you can, show them how the child can be incorporated into one of their favorite games.

"If the child is blind, simply tell them that he can't see, but that they can talk to him, and tell them that if they want to tell him about an object to first explain it and let him feel it," says Gotts.

If the child is ridiculed, deal with it in your own yard, Gotts advises; don't go down the street to talk to the child's parents. Neighbors are apt to react negatively to this.

"Parents will have to expect embarrassing questions and not withdraw or become hostile because of them," Dr. Gotts says. "After all, the other people probably feel embarrassed themselves, and they are trying to work this out. In replying, parents always try and be as frank and honest as they can about the situation."

The handicapped child will have to learn to meet the public Florence Goodenough, former exceptional child specialist of the University of Minnesota, has said that the special child... "Must learn to ignore the curious glances of strangers, the well-meant but still embarrassing questions and the sympathetic remarks of friends and relatives, and the thoughtless jests of other children. These things are not easy but they must be accomplished if the child's personality is not to be crippled along with his body."

How does a family do that? The training begins at home, and it begins by helping the child to become as independent and self-sufficient as possible.

"Don't force independence, though," says Dr. Gotts. "Find out what the child can do and find the level where he is doing the best he can. Ask him to try it first and then, if he can't do it, help."

The greater the self-confidence a child has in doing for himself, the better he will be able to handle himself in public.

Doctors Benjamin Spock and Marion Lerrigo, in their book, "Caring For Your Disabled Child," say, "There are many situations in which it is quite natural to offer help, whether to a disabled or to a normal person. If your child can learn to respond with a casual remark such as, 'I think I can do it myself, thank you,' he explains his wish for independence in a way that helps his friends understand his real needs. On the other hand, your child has to learn to ask for help without embarrassment when he wants or needs it. He has to learn--and to accept the fact graciously--that everyone needs help at times."

Doctors Chess, Thomas and Birch in their book "Your Child is a Person," say, "In addition to love, the retarded child needs patient, calm, and persistent teachers, both in the family and in special schools, so that he can develop his full potential. Only this can give him the sense of self-confidence that comes from progressive mastery and achievement."

This is true of all children, but particularly the handicapped child.

Last, the handicapped child may have to have special tools or equipment to help him, and may even have to have special attention paid to his room.

Any devices which can be obtained which help him toward mastery of his problems are worth investigating.

In the case of the mentally retarded or brain damaged child, the child positively will need a room of his own as a retreat from a busy, busy world. He will need a room with a simplified decor--two colors at most with no complicated designs on the walls or ceiling. Toys should be few and uncomplicated.

In general, though, differences should be minimized. A "special" child is a child first, however particular his problems may be.

(Editor's Note: This is the second of a two-part series on the environment of the handicapped child. The first part appeared in Friday's Star-Courier. These have been provided by the Office of Early Childhood Development, Texas Department of Community Affairs.)

For Deductions

Alertness Required

TRIMMING YOUR TAXES

(Part Two)

When Dr. Watson exclaimed: "What a clever deduction, Holmes!" he didn't mean a tax deduction, of course.

"You don't have to be a Sherlock Holmes to track down deductible items," says tax expert Sanford Kahn. "But it does help if you approach the search with the instincts of a detective -- that is, alertly, carefully, doggedly."

One of the most often overlooked tax deductions also can be one of the largest, according to Kahn. That deduction is casualty loss--the damage to property as a result of sudden calamities such as burglary, fire or flood.

"A casualty loss can amount to thousands of dollars," says Kahn, "yet many taxpayers aren't even aware of this deduction."

Kahn supervises the tax department of GFC Corp., which this year will assist in the preparation of returns of taxpayers in 21 states. GFC Corp. is a subsidiary of CNA Financial Corp.

To determine a casualty loss deduction, Kahn instructs, subtract the value of the property after the loss from the value of the property before the loss, less $100. He cites these examples of potential casualty loss deductions:

-If a windstorm causes $1,000 in damage to your house and this money is not reimbursed by insurance, you can list a $900 deduction on your tax form, whether you actually make the repairs. "Of course," Kahn adds, "you must be able to verify the extent of the damage if the Internal Revenue Service asks you."

-If you have a bad auto accident and damages to your car are not recovered by insurance you can deduct the loss of value over $100 -- again whether you have the car fixed.

"The question of casualty hinges on the word 'sudden,'" says Kahn. "If you misplace a ring only to discover a year later that it is missing, that is not a casualty loss. But if your ring accidentally goes down a drain, that is."

Casualty loss is only one of many often-overlooked deductions, Kahn asserts. "Now that doctors' house calls are a thing of the past," he says "don't forget mileage to and from the doctor's office if you take a medical deduction -- that is, if your medical costs total more than three percent of your gross income. You may either deduct the actual fare paid or, if you drive, six cents a mile, plus parking and tolls."

Those with two jobs can deduct mileage from one job to another. They may deduct 12 cents a mile for driving or the actual fare. "If you actually don't travel from one job to the other, but return home first, you may still take the deduction for the distance between jobs," says Kahn. "Moreover, you can take this deduction even if you don't itemize. It's called an employee's business expense, and you can take it in addition to the standard deduction."

Other business-connected deductions also are frequently overlooked. The mechanic who provides his own micrometer, the carpenter who buys his own tools, the policeman or doorman who buys their own uniforms -- all may take these items as deductions. "In fact," says Kahn, "The cost of any clothes specially worn for the job -- a jacket with the company name on it, for example -- can be deducted. So can the cost of uniform maintenance, which may amount to considerably more than the original cost of the item."
